

(From Monday's Daily)

SCHOOL OPENED TODAY

The Tombstone public schools opened today for the fall semester with an unusual large attendance, and Supt. Tilford reports a bright outlook for the ensuing year with the present enrollment. All teachers who have been away on vacation during the summer returned Saturday and Sunday, and a good start was made today.

TOMORROW NATURALIZATION DAY

Tomorrow is naturalization day in the Superior Court, when a class in the neighborhood of 50 applicants will come to Tombstone to be examined for citizenship. Most of the applicants have attended the naturalization class being conducted in the Bisbee and Douglas public schools, and expect to pass the examination here tomorrow with high percentages. Examiner A. E. Eldridge of Los Angeles who is now in Bisbee, will come to Tombstone to conduct the hearings. REPORTED BETTER

The condition of Mrs. John Igo, is reported much better this afternoon, according to word received by her husband, Court interpreter John Igo, which will be pleasing news to her many friends. Another operation will not be necessary and the patient is improving rapidly, although still in the hospital.

RETURNED HOME

Mrs. Rita Sanders returned home yesterday from Los Angeles, where she went to place her two young sons in school. She reports seeing a number of Tombstonians now sojourning at the coast.

CONTESTED DIVORCE CASE

The Superior Court today was occupied with the trial of a contested divorce case of Precilliana Nolan vs. Lorenzo Nolan, the jury having been secured during the morning session, and testimony started. This afternoon a recess was taken for an hour in order to allow the county attorney to attend a preliminary in the justice court, and it is expected the case will be completed by evening recess.

FROM STATE ROAD CAMP

Frank Sanders and Paul Eldson now working at the state road camp, as chauffeurs on the big Nash Quad trucks were in Saturday from the camp in the foothills of the Santa Rita mountains, with two trucks to get some equipment left here when the camp moved last Monday. In speaking of the roads, they state that the Borderland Route was being repaired in Santa Cruz and Pima counties and that the big hole in the Empire Ranch wash has been filled and it is no longer necessary to be pulled out by a team. The gang will start widening by fills and cutting the sharp turns in the road over the Santa Ritas today. The worst road now is between Turner and the Santa Cruz line in Cochise county and most of that is near the two county lines, they state.

RAIN STOPS TENNIS

The incessant rains of Saturday night and Sunday put a stop to the scheduled games between the Douglas and Tombstone clubs to be played here yesterday, the Douglas team being unable to make the trip. It is possible the match can be arranged for next Sunday, and an attempt at such arrangement is now being made.

BACK FROM PHOENIX

A. F. Parker and W. J. Fairley, who have been in Phoenix in the interests of an oil company in which they are interested in Texas have returned here Saturday and expect to leave for Texas again shortly.

RETURNED FROM SAD MISSION

L. F. Kuchenbecker and wife and child and Mrs. W. F. Kuchenbecker returned to Tombstone today from Los Angeles, where they went on the said mission of attending the funeral of W. F. Kuchenbecker, who passed away suddenly two weeks ago. Owing to the strike the shipment of the remains had been tied up for nearly a week, but once started the trip was not delayed, and they arrived on time. The funeral of the departed Tombstone resident was conducted in Los Angeles on Wednesday, a number of Tombstone and Cochise county residents residing in Los Angeles attending. Burial was had in the family plot.

RETURNED FROM COAST

Miss Camilla Dalgleish and Miss Cornelia Cornelius returned home Saturday from a two months stay in Long Beach, California, the guest of relatives. They report an enjoyable visit.

TO ST. MARY'S OHIO

Mrs. Geo. Ivey and children are in St. Mary's Ohio, where Mrs. Ivey is visiting with relatives.

CHINESE PRELIMINARY

The preliminary hearing of Wong Tong, the Chinese gardner who is accused of killing another Celestial named Ah Gee, following a quarrel in which Tong attempted to kill a Chinaman named Wong Him, will be held this afternoon before Justice Wentworth, following its postponement from 2 o'clock this afternoon.

RESIGNS TO GO TO RAY

Deputy Sheriff Joe Hardwick has tendered his resignation to Sheriff James McDonald and leaves in a few days for Ray, where he has been offered a position paying higher salary. Mr. Hardwick today was incensed over a false report circulated in Bisbee that he had been "canned" stating that this was an absolute untruth, since he had tendered his resignation to Sheriff McDonald of his own will in order to take a better position. He expects to leave for Ray within a few days. His successor has not yet been named by the Sheriff.

RETURNED HOME

Mrs. Geo. Bravin and children returned home Saturday from Long Beach, where they have been spending the past two months on a visit to the seaside.

TO HAVE ARM RESET

Mrs. Nellie Dalgleish today took her son, Robert to Bisbee, where his right arm, which was broken in cranking an auto several days ago, will be reset. Both bones were broken and one of the bones has not set properly. They will return this evening.

WAS IN BISBEE

F. H. Fowler of the Abstract Insurance and Trust company spent Friday in Bisbee visiting his sister Mrs. F. H. Kerr.

MOVED TO TOMBSTONE

D. Giacoleto and family of Courtland have moved to Tombstone, where they will make their future homes. Mr. Giacoleto being interested in a lease in Tombstone.

OFFICERS ELECTED

At the meeting of the Solstice Mining and Milling company held in Tombstone today, the following officers and directors were elected: L. P. Winters, president; M. W. Blodgett, Vice president; A. Wentworth, secretary and treasurer, and Ray B. Krebs and O. Gibson, in addition to the above officers who will also serve as directors. It is expected to start operations as soon as possible, machinery to be purchased and its installation preparatory to prosecuting work on a large scale. A mill is also to be erected to handle the lower grades ores.

(From Tuesday's Daily)

BENSON CATTLEMAN

Lee Harrington, well known Benson cattleman was a visitor in Tombstone today having come up on business matters. He reports that the carload of Gillette Bulls, which he shipped up from Texas sold like hot cakes. He Cochise county cattlemen grasping the opportunity to inject some thoroughbred blood into their herds. He is contemplating shipment of another lot to this district in the near future.

FROM BISBEE

B. Caretto, well known resident of Bisbee spent the day in Tombstone today, having come over as a witness before the Superior Court in several naturalization cases.

TORNEYS HERE

Among the attorneys in the city today were S. K. Williams, Bisbee and A. M. Sames and Frank Doan of Douglas.

IN DOUGLAS

Chief Deputy Assessor, Walter Thomas and wife spent Sunday in Douglas, the guest of relatives.

TO ST. LOUIS

Mrs. L. F. Winters leaves tomorrow for St. Louis and other eastern points where she will spend two months on an extended visit with relatives. Following her visit in Missouri and other states she expects to return via the northern route stopping in Wichita, Texas for a several days visit with her sister before returning.

VICTORY BOND PAYMENTS DUE

Cashier M. M. Bludworth of the First National Bank calls attention to the fact that the fourth payment of Victory Loan bonds are now due and payable at the bank, where subscribers may come in and make payment either in part or in full. The bonds are on hand and ready for delivery.

TRAVELLING MAN

J. L. Mays, representing the Western Wooden Ware Company, of El Paso was a visitor in Tombstone yesterday and today interviewing the trade.

TO BISBEE

Deputy Sheriff Joe Hardwick went to Bisbee this morning, where he was called on business matters.

NATURALIZATION DAY

In the neighborhood of 50 applicants for final citizenship papers appeared before the Superior Court today in a class for examination as to their eligibility for naturalization. The examinations did not get well under way until shortly before the noon hour, and this afternoon applicants were being put through as rapidly as possible in an effort to complete before evening. The examination is being conducted before Judge Lockwood by special examiner A. E. Eldridge, of Los Angeles. It is expected that all applicants are not put through by evening recess a night session may be held.

THROUGH TO FORT

Sheriff James F. McDonald and Deputy Harry Midkiff of Bisbee passed through Tombstone this afternoon bound for Fort Huachuca, where the Sheriff was called on urgent official business. He has been in Bisbee working on the True Meat Market robbery case and yesterday arrested a suspect, named Chet Moon, whom he believes was implicated in the robbery. Moon is being held under a burglary suspect charge pending further investigation.

THE ROADS

Here is the way you can get in and out of Tombstone. Road to Benson first class, also to Fairbank, same thing to Bisbee, good to Charleston. Not very bad to Gleason or to Dragon with the last three roads being worked on by gangs to keep them passable.

MOVED IN

J. W. Haverly and family have taken the Episcopal paragonage for the school year. Mrs. Ireland and daughter have taken the Stark house for the school year. Prof. Tilford's family will arrive in about a month. C. J. Schneider and sister have taken the Cummings house next door to the court house. Tom Saunderson has moved into his new cottage on Allen street. Roger Saunders is moving his family from the company house to his own and Phelton Ijams will take the house now vacated by Mr. Saunders.

FOG

It was regular coast weather this morning. Early risers were treated to an immense bank of fog hanging just outside of the city limits towards the south and west.

PICKING UP

Cattle are so frisky now that they are making the cattlemen nervous, fearing that the cattle will over eat themselves. The ranges are now bedded down with feed.

ABLE TO BE OUT

Jack Ryan, the deputy sheriff and motorcycle officer, who was painfully injured Friday night, when a cow got in his road while he was enroute to Tombstone, was able to be about on crutches yesterday. He has a bad cut in the head and strained leg, and was unconscious for some time, but made his way home "on his own power."—Bisbee Review.

(From Wednesday's Daily)

NO SHOW TONIGHT

The Crystal theater is dark tonight but tomorrow night Elsie Ferguson will be seen in her late play "His Parisian Wife." There will also be one other reel of Pathe news and scenic views.

TO SILVER CREEK

A. H. Gardner, secretary of the old Cochise county highway commission, went to Bisbee this morning when in company with Engineer J. C. Ryan, he went to Silver Creek where they looked over the bridge now completed and which Mr. Ryan accepted for the commission.

DELAYED

The preliminary hearing of the case of the State vs. T. D. M. Larrieu which was scheduled to be held in Bisbee this morning was postponed until late this afternoon, probably tomorrow morning, according to word received by the sheriff's office this afternoon, owing to the inability of attorney for the defense to be present. Larrieu, who is well known in Tombstone is charged with attempt to kill Henry Gray and Fred Rebback. In the Whetstone mountains some time ago. The evidence is said to be purely circumstantial.

HERE ON BRIEF VISIT

Dr. E. Grebe formerly superintendent of the Bunker Hill Mines company was a visitor in Tombstone yesterday and today, having come here on mining business from St. Louis, where he has been the past month on mining matters. His headquarters are at Phoenix, where he has been located since leaving Tombstone.

TO KELTON

E. K. Springer, sales representative of the Tombstone Auto Company went to Kelton today on business matters.

CIVIL CASE ON

The civil case of D. Giacoleto vs. Frank Lehman, et al. of Courtland was on in the superior court today, and expected to be completed before evening recess. The jury was secured at this morning's session and considerable testimony heard before noon recess. The case is one for accounting, the plaintiff through his attorney O. Gibson, claiming that the defendants failed to make an accounting to him on a lease in which they were in partnership. An amount in the neighborhood of $1800 is involved.

PRELIMINARY HEARING

(From Thursday's Daily)

GOOD BILL ATCRYSTAL TONIGHT

Local movie fans are in store for a real treat at the Crystal theater tonight when Elsie Ferguson will appear in one of her latest plays entitled "His Parisian Wife." Elsie is popular in Tombstone and all her plays are sure to draw her admirers.

BRIEF VISITOR

W. H. Kingston, paymaster of the Copper Queen company, of Bisbee was a brief business visitor in the county seat yesterday.

IN BISBEE

Deputy Assessor Walter Thomas is in Bisbee on official business.

RETURNED FROM DOUGLAS

County Attorney R. N. French returned to Tombstone this morning from Douglas, where he has been prosecuting the Bisbee deportation cases. He expects to return to Douglas Sunday, where he will take up the cases against former sheriff Harry C. Wheeler, J. J. Bowen, M. J. Cunningham and about twenty other defendants, before returning to Tombstone to complete the filing of the cases in the superior court.

THROUGH TO DOUGLAS

Tom Glenn, business man of Douglas, accompanied by his family passed through Tombstone today enroute home from Los Angeles, having made the trip via auto. They report the roads in pretty bad shape, although passable.

ARRESTED FOROPERATING STILL

The Sheriff's office this afternoon received word from Lowell that deputies Foster and Gilman this morning arrested B. F. Saust, proprietor of the Midway Park Produce Exchange at Bisbee for operating a still, which they confiscated together with about twenty gallons of the white mule. Faust is said to be an old offender. He will be given a preliminary hearing this afternoon.

FROM BISBEE

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Henderson motored over from Bisbee last evening, accompanied by Mrs. George Bravin, mother of Mrs. Henderson, who has been visiting in Bisbee for the past several days. Mrs. Henderson will remain for a visit with her mother.

TO HEREFORD

Chief Deputy Sheriff George Henshaw went to Hereford this morning where he was called on business connected with the sheriff's office. He expects to return home tonight.

BISBEE VISITORS

An auto party composed of Mr. and Mrs. George Rockhill, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Massengale, and Mr. and Mrs. John Davis, motored to Tombstone last evening on a visit to friends.

JENKINS HERE

Engineer A. W. Jenkins, connected with the state road camp now in the vicinity of the Empire Ranch, was a business visitor in the city today, expecting to return to the camp tonight. He reports the road in that section as now being open to traffic, all the mud holes having been eliminated and the rough spots removed.

TO BISBEE

W. T. "Bill" Boyd, of Boyd's Drug store, was an outgoing passenger this morning for Bisbee, where he goes on business matters.

FROM TURNER

G. K. Fenter, well known cattleman and rancher of the Huachuca mountain district, was a business visitor in the county seat today from his ranch near Turner.

GOOD WORK

The crossings at the intersections of the streets about the city are being repaired and put into good shape. This was badly needed as many a motorist unloaded his wrath upon everybody in general when he was thrown against the top while trying to observe the traffic laws in keeping to the right of the dummy cops.

(From Friday's Daily)

NO FURTHER ACTION UNTIL AFTER FIRST OF YEAR

An agreement was made today by County Attorney French and the attorneys for the various defendants, that no further action would be taken in the deportation cases until after the first of the year, as both sides have found it necessary to make depositions in the east, which will require considerable time.

FROM MIAMI

Mrs. W. S. Harboston and daughter Miss Katherine, Mrs. George Macia, and daughter, Miss Daphne Bratley, and Mrs. W. Virgin, all former Tombstonians, and now residents of Miami, arrived in Tombstone today on a visit with relatives and friends. All the above resided in Tombstone for several years and have a host of friends who will be glad to greet them among the old scenes again.

WILLCOX ATTORNEY

Attorney Lyman H. Hays, of Willcox, was a business visitor in the county seat today, having matters at the court house in the interests of clients.

DOUGLAS ATTORNEY

Attorney Bruce Stephenson, of the law firm of Manatt and Stephenson, of Douglas, was among the visiting legal lights in the county seat today.

FROM BISBEE

Mr. and Mrs. J. Roy Fitzpatrick, of Bisbee, motored over yesterday spending the day with Chief Deputy Sheriff and Mrs. Geo. Henshaw. Mrs. Fitzpatrick is a sister of Mrs. Henshaw.

COMMITTED TOINDUSTRIAL SCHOOL

In the juvenile court today Judge Lockwood committed Paul Raymond Huey, the boy burglar who was arrested in Douglas after he had entered several residence and made away with various articles, to the Industrial School at Fort Grant. Huey ran away from his home in Youngstown, Ohio. The youthful burglar became entangled in the meshes of the law after a short career of burglary in the Smelter City.

THROUGH FROM COAST

V. H. Lincoln and J. E. McCarthy, brother and brother-in-law of Mrs. A. C. Lockwood, stopped over in Tombstone today, enroute to Lake Arthur, N. M., where they are interested in oil holdings. They are traveling in a Packard car, and made the run from Los Angeles to Tombstone in 48 hours. They were loud in their praise of the roads encountered in Cochise county and state that the best they had traveled since leaving Los Angeles boulevard, was the Tombstone-Benson stretch. In general they said that Cochise county's roads far surpassed those encountered in any other part of Arizona on their trip.

FROM DOS CABEZAS

Jack Howard, well known old timer of the Dos Cabezas district, was a visitor in Tombstone today, attending to business matters about town and at the court house.

SELL MANY CHEVROLETS DURING PAST WEEK

The Day & Night Garage reports the sale of fifteen Chevrolets during the past week to parties residing in all parts of the county. The machines were delivered in Bisbee, Lowell, Garip Canyon, El Prieta, Gleason, McNeal, Warren and Bowie.

MAIL CARRIER EXAMINATION

A civil service examination for rural carrier at Webb, Ariz., will be held at the Bisbee postoffice Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. For further information regarding this examination applicants are requested to see the secretary of the local civil service board.

TO COURTLAND

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Cook motored over to Courtland today where they went to spend the day with Judge Carlos E. Bolton, an old friend of Mr. Cook.

FROM PEARCE

Deputy Sheriff Hal Smith, of Pearce was a visitor in the county seat last evening and today on business connected with the sheriff's office.

IN BISBEE

Attorney W. G. Gilmore spent yesterday in Bisbee where he went in connection with the Larrieu case, representing the defendant.

METER MAN

M. N. Bird, representing the National Meter Co., was in Tombstone today calling on the trade. Mr. Bird is a son of Col. Bird of Nogales, the well known editor.

(From Saturday's Daily)

GOT PTOMAIN

Frank Ivey, night man at the Day & Night Garage is able to be up and around following an attack of ptomaine poisoning, which confined him to his bed for several days.

IN FROM RANCH

Frank Moore, member of the Arizona Livestock Sanitary Board was in Tombstone today from his ranch at Rucker Canyon, on business matters.

RETURNED FROM OKLAHOMA

H. Smart, manager of the local office of the Mountain States Telephone & Telegraph company, returned home today following a week's trip to Oklahoma City, Okla., where he accompanied his wife, who expects to spend several months visiting relatives. Mr. Smart tells an interesting story of trip through the oil fields of Texas, where he had intended to stop off for a few days to look around, but arriving there on his way back home, he saw what conditions were and decided to keep right on toward home. Thousands of people, he states are stranded at the different boom oil towns, being unable to get out on account of train accommodations, and reservations must be made at least four or five days ahead before even standing room can be obtained on the trains. Freight is scattered along the track for miles, he states, presenting the appearance of a general wreck. Money is the cheapest commodity there, he states, and he feels lucky to be able to get back to Tombstone, having lost all desire to take in the boom at the much heralded oil fields.

TO RETURN HOME

Miss Elizabeth Axtell, who has been visiting in Warren the guest of Mrs. Georgia Kolberg, will return home this evening.

TO BISBEE

Mrs. J. A. Rockfellow and daughter, Miss Henrietta motored over to Bisbee today spending a few hours with friends.

COMPLETES TANK

Fowler Brothers have completed the building of their big storage tank of their ranch in Government Draw, which is expected to hold enough flood water to carry their stock thru the winter.

RETURNED HOME

Mrs. J. A. Perry returned home today from Bisbee where she has been visiting for the past several days with her friends.

FROM DOUGLAS

J. N. Gaines returned home today from Douglas where he has been on business matters for the past few days.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL ON PAGE 4